Atlantic, Tomorrow's Office Acquires ACP Technologies

Atlantic, Tomorrow's Office acquires ACP Technologies to expand their managed services and imaging business in the New York and Texas marketplaces

Manhattan, NY (March 2, 2023) – Atlantic, Tomorrow's Office. Atlantic, an award winning national Managed Services Provider of office technology products and solutions, is pleased to announce the expansion of their IT Services Division with the acquisition of ACP Technologies (ACP), a managed IT and Cybersecurity Services provider with an incredible reputation for helping business leaders throughout greater New York and beyond for over 25 years.

"We're very proud to welcome ACP to the Atlantic family,' said Larry Weiss, CEO of Atlantic. "Joining forces is an immediate win for both organizations. Ben and his team share our core philosophy of client-centered service, and have done a tremendous job growing their business organically. We're eager to provide them and their clients with additional resources and a full portfolio of imaging and document management solutions that will immediately expand their potential."

Founded in 1997, ACP is headquartered in West Seneca, NY with locations in Rochester, NY and San Antonio, TX, and is an innovative managed IT services and cybersecurity provider. ACP provides a portfolio of managed IT, cybersecurity and cloud services to clients throughout New York, Texas and surrounding states. The organization has 20 employees and has experienced rapid growth over the last several years.

"I'm excited about our new partnership with Atlantic. It's incredible to be working with an experienced and like-minded team who are aligned with our culture, goals and objectives," said Benjamin Pearce, Founder and CEO of ACP. "This is an exciting time for our employees as we work together to provide the best technology services and support for our clients."

This acquisition, the 9th for Atlantic, marks the company's continued efforts to fulfill the IT, cybersecurity, print and imaging service needs of growing businesses in major markets across the country. Clients looking to learn more about the acquisition or other office technology solutions are encouraged to visit the company website or contact an Atlantic representative for more details.
